Regarding Dolores, as far as I know no one on the block asked for any repairs. Nor has anyone been billed.

No idea what percentage of the damaged sidewalk was due to "city trees". But quite a bit of sidewalk was replaced, plus a couple small patches of driveway where it was adjacent to damaged sidewalk.

Not really sure what my point is here, if any. Just reporting the facts, as I understand them, on this, the 26th day of October, 2011.

If the sidewalk is damaged by a "City" tree, the City pays for the sidewalk repairs. Unfortunately for most homeowners, the bulk of these trees are not the City's. In that case the homeowner is responsible for sidewalk repairs. Liability for injuries to pedestrians is a fairly complicated set of rules, dealing with "notice", duty to notify, whether or not a certain ordinance has been passed., etc. On occasion the sidewalk gets repaired/replaced as part of a street renovation. Generally, if its your sidewalk (that is in front of your house), it is a good idea to maintain it.

Robert, Ilene and Glenfriends-

Funny thing about that.

Seems that people tripping on sidewalks were able to successfully sue City governments for a lot of money to compensate them for their injuries.

So different City governments appealed to the Courts and Legislature who ruled in their favor. Therefore-individual homeowners and landlords are fully financially responsible for repairs, replacements, liens, and lawsuits for their sidewalks.

City governments are only legally / financially responsible for repairs and replacements of the STREETS.

Homeowners MUST follow rules for your sidewalks (building codes, size, color of the cement, no decorative elements allowed, etc) that the City mandates.

Wish I had better news for you...

Subject: [glenfriends] City does NOT pay for sidewalk repair / replacement costs

Dear Ilene and Glenfriends-

Unfortunately-when Greenwood Ave was notified by the City of Oakland we needed to pay for the repairs of our sidewalks, we got a fast education on the system.

1) The City ONLY pays for sidewalk repairs if a tree that was planted BY the City has broken your sidewalk. The City keeps an extensive list of every tree they have planted, and unless yours is on that list---you are on the hook for the repairs.

2) If the City cites you (as they did our block of Greenwood Ave) for having to repair the sidewalk in front of your house, the homeowner must repair / replace the sidewalk with a permit and pay for it themselves. Failure to do so means the City places a lien on your property, and sends a crew out to do the work. You are then billed and until it is paid---you won't be able to sell or re-fin your house.

3) If the area to be fixed is larger than 25 sq ft (5 ft wide x 5 ft long), the cost for a permit averages $400 per house plus the cost of labor which is approx. $11 per sq foot.

We put together a "How To Primer" on how we worked as a group and significantly cut our costs for 11 houses getting their sidewalks repaired/replaced. We got the City of Oakland to allow us to open ONE permit for the block which was shared equally by all, and we had a great Concrete Contractor give us an amazing bid for all the work being done at once.

Each house saved hundreds of dollars.

If anyone wants a copy-email me and I will forward separately.

Subject: [glenfriends] Sidewalk repair on Dolores

I just noticed that the sidewalks on Dolores are being repaired and am eager to find out how residents got the City to do this. For years I've been asking my councilman, De La Fuente (who ardently supports the police action in downtown Oakland by the way), to help with getting our sidewalks repaired and have gotten nothing in response. Any suggestions would be welcomed.---Ilene

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force. Force will only cause more people to protest.

Sincerely,

Subject: Mishandling of the Occupy Oakland Situation

Dear Mrs. Mayor,

I'll keep this short:

Though I live in Nancy Nadel's district, I have been a fan of yours since I can remember. Words cannot express how disappointed I am in your handling of the Occupy Oakland situation. Did you have a momentary lapse of memory and forget that Oakland is -- proudly -- one of the most liberal cities in the nation? Don't we receive enough bad press due to the crime rate and mediocre schools? Tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades? This action was supposedly taken to protect public safety. Seriously?

And, this, coming fast on the heels of Chief Batts' resignation... Oh, dear, Mrs. Mayor. I think your administration is in trouble, not to mention what lousy timing this is vis a vis the passage of Measure I.

And, finally, Mrs. Mayor, with all due respect: Oakland deserves better!

Very sincerely yours,

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Police violence can never be the appropriate response to peaceful protest. History favors legitimate protest in spite of heavy and violent police response. Time an again in American history this has been shown. And it seems time and again, those in power are destined to repeat those mistakes. Please restrain your police force. This is has already permanently put a black mark on your record.

I was there. I watched as they tore down the tent that was my home and they destroyed the beautiful encampment that was my village, my community. They were thugs in riot gear, armed with batons and rifles that shoot rubber bullets, and tear gas. 500 of them from precincts all over California marched on a sleepy community of peaceful protesters and brutalized our homes, our structures, our selves. They had no connection to and no care for us. They beat and violently arrested my neighbors and comrades. They tore down our first aid tent, tore apart our free kitchen, tore up our budding community vegetable garden. The next night we took to the streets in protest, more than 1,000 strong, and they fired tear gas into our faces. They shot at us with rubber bullets and beanbags. I was standing in peaceful defiance in front of an armored wall of riot police when they launched the tear gas, and an ex-marine, a veteran of the Iraq war, was hit in the face with a tear gas canister. As I ran toward him I was shot in the arm, and the gas burned my eyes so that I couldn't see. This brutality has got to stop. We are peaceful demonstrators. We are a community. We are radical, we are purposeful, we are committed to the cause and determined to see it through-- but we are demonstrators. We are civilians. Why was it necessary to mobilize the machinery of war against unarmed civilian demonstrators? To the powers that be: do you feel so threatened by us? By the sheer strength of our care, commitment, and conviction? Well, you should be.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Subject: Respectful disagreement with police raid on Occupy Oakland

Dear Mayor Quan,

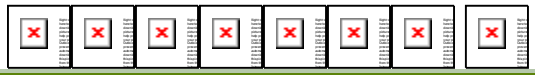
I am a homeowner who voted for you in the last election, a public policy advocate by profession (though my focus is mostly in the San Joaquin Valley), and someone whose office is right at 14th and Broadway who regularly passed by the Occupy Oakland camps. I wanted to share with you my heartfelt and personal views on the past few days, out of respect for your actions during the Oscar Grant protest.

It is hard to believe that clearing the Occupy Oakland camp was necessary. It added to the vitality of downtown Oakland at night. I associate it with free BBQ, movie nights, hip hop shows, and a generally peaceful and friendly vibe whenever I walked by -- not with trash or any of the other negative statements I hear in City press statements.

The police reaction to this peaceful encampment was astoundingly violent and disproportionate. I was appalled by the images and videos. This reaction was an enormous disruption, much moreso than the protests. We were advised not to come to work for two days in a row. Images and press accounts made downtown look like a battle zone. I did not find convincing the argument that bottle throwing had made the attacks necessary, because I saw too many reports and images of a large group peacefully protesting. I was left with the impression that police had declared war on the unarmed civilians of downtown Oakland, including veterans, the disabled, parents with children, and members of the press.

I was also extremely upset at the use of public funds for this action. I just purchased a home in West Oakland (near the Emeryville Home Depot), which I am still renovating. I was there late last night painting by the light of my headlamp as I heard the helicopters circling with their spotlight and as I took breaks to read the twitter reports. Meanwhile, I could see an illegally-dumped couch about three doors down, which had been there for three days, as well as all the usual drug sale activity. I joked on Facebook that the police should stop teargassing people and come help me paint. But in all seriousness, I am saddened to imagine the amazing good that could have been done in our community if that same amount of personnel and expense had been used to patrol neighborhoods, pay local people to build community gardens or clean up litter, and make lasting improvements to our civic infrastructure.

I have been vacillating on Measure I, because I want to support the city's safety during this fiscal emergency, but at the same time, I can barely afford paint, my mortgage, and rent elsewhere (north Oakland near San Pablo), much less increased property taxes. After imagining the money squandered for the action last night, and because of being so appalled by what occurred, I will have an even harder time voting to tax myself to support the police.



I know you have a difficult job in an era of declining revenues, and I respect your personal background and your decision to serve as a public official. I am not supporting the recall campaign because I still hope and believe that you will show positive leadership during this crisis. I hope you will decry (not defend, not abdicate authority over) police violence, release all protestors, call upon city staff to support the Occupy Oakland activities, and undertake a wide range of policy reforms on behalf of the 99%. Thank you for all of your work.

With respect and encouragement,
Carey Knecht

20th Anniversary of the Oakland/Berkeley Hills Firestorm

Honor & Prepare for a Fire Safe Future

Twenty years ago, Oakland faced what was then the worst urban fire disaster in the nation's history. On October 20, 1991, at 11 am Diablo winds gusting at 65 mph fanned flames and swept through 1600 acres in the Oakland/Berkeley Hills, killing 25 people, injuring 150 residents and destroying more than 3000 homes at an economic loss of $1.5 billion. At the fire's peak, it destroyed one home every 11 seconds!

Many lessons were learned that day and in the years since. But the most important lesson is that we can prepare for a fire safe future today--and that we must do it now, before the next fire or earthquake.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

It has been alleged that the Occupation was a health risk.
We have the right to know if the Public Health Department actually did an inspection and if so to see their report. If they have not, we have the right to know the basis of the health risk assertions. It can't be just the possible occasional presence of rats. Rats are everywhere in our cities. My cat caught one in my own yard. My neighbor's cat catches rats on a regular basis and this is in a "good" section of Berkeley. If the food preparations are not up to standards, I want to know what the standards are and the specifics of the alleged problems.

Sincerely,

Subject: [glenfriends] ROBBERY / BREAK-IN ALERT on El Centro Ave

BREAK-IN AND ROBBERY ALERT!!!!! My neighbor at 4618 El Centro Avenue (back apartment) just arrived home a short time ago to find that someone had entered his apartment through a window. They went through all of the drawers, closets, file cabinets and took his computer monitor, cameras and other electronic items.They had entered through a bathroom window which is really quite high off the ground level. Had to be a two-person job. Must have climbed over the back fence into the back yard two doors up from 1050 El Centro because the compost container top was crushed in. It was sitting right next to the fence between the apartment building and the back yard on El Centro. Didn't go up the front stairs or my dog would have gone berserk. He goes crazy when strangers go up the stairs. The police would not take a report because they are too busy down at City Hall Plaza with the Occupy Oakland gang. Did anyone see anything suspicious going on either on El Centro Avenue going up the hill from Glendora, or around on Elsinore near that big apartment building? They had to carry the stuff out to a vehicle somewhere and it was a very large monitor. MK on El Centro.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Hello Mayor Quan,

I'm writing you from Los Angeles where I've been observing the various "Occupy" movements via the web since they started.

I was very sad to hear about the rough tactics used by the Oakland police, and about the young Iraq vet who has a head injury from some kind of explosive that was thrown.

I can't fathom the reason for these tactics. The people who are protesting are giving a voice to those of us who cannot join them because we are at work. I support what they stand for, which is an accountable banking system and a responsive government. Despite the media-fueled contempt toward the protests, people know things aren't right. It is their right and our triumph as a country that people care enough to peacefully protest and "Occupy" public spaces in order to make a statement. I thought my country (and my state) were places where exercising this right are respected. Actions like those taken by the police last night makes me believe otherwise.

Please know the world is watching, and that we care. We care for our cops, too, and don't want them turned against us. We know they deal with terrible events and people so we don't have to. I just wanted to drop you a line and let you hear my thoughts. Thanks for your time.

Regards,

Cindi Burkey

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

The actions of the Oakland PD that were carried out at your orders are simply a disgrace, Ms. Quan. Maybe your press statement meant to spin events in a more positive light for you would have worked 15 years ago, but not in today's modern age.
The whole world is watching. We know the truth about what happened. Hiding behind press statements won't save your career now. I sincerely hope you enjoyed your time as mayor, Ms. Quan, because your political career is now dead in the water.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

And for good reason. It is horrible, nasty stuff. I was gassed during basic training in the military, and never want to experience it again.
Your throat, nose, eyes, and any exposed skin feel like they're on fire. Your eyes are streaming and snot is running out of your nose.
You're gasping, struggling to breathe, trying not to vomit. It's essentially a form of torture. It can also cause serious heart, liver, and lung problems, and in some circumstances can be fatal.

I believe the status of tear gas as an illegal chemical weapon means that the Oakland police personnel who used this weapon -- not against enemy soldiers in war, but even worse, against unarmed civilians attempting to exercise their First Amendment rights -- are war criminals.

That of course also goes for whoever gave the orders to use it.
Hopefully that wasn't yourself. I hope you will instead order an investigation, tell the OPD to leave the Occupy protesters in Oscar Grant Park alone, and take strong and immediate action to ensure that tear gas is never used against civilians in Oakland again.

The behavior of some police is outrageous. We all followed the protests in Egypt, Iran, Syria, Libia, Tunesia, Yemen recently and saw what can happen. Let us not forget the 1932 "Bonus Veterans", the marches for freedom in the south during the 1960s and the police response to those marches. Let us not foget the marches against the Vietnam war....then there is always the Russian and French Revolutions !! Stop the police violence....IMMEDIATELY !!! People have a right to assemble !! This brutality will be spattered all over the international airways and it makes America look like a hypocrite. When I heard that a twice deployed veteran of the Iraq War was seriously injured .... by a rubber bullet or perhaps a baton club....that is too much!

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

E Bobrow

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

These are idealistic young people, just like we were in the 60's! They are reacting in a reasonable way to unreasonable circumstances. They should receive our support, not censure. They should not be treated like criminals and the bail they were charged should be returned to each one.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I am sure you have received hundreds, if not thousands, of emails and phone calls in regards to your police department's handling of the Occupy protester's recent evictions. I doubt that my email will even be read but I find that to be a poor excuse to not express my disappointment and shock over what was shown in the media. The actions of your police department were deeply disturbing. I will never think of your city without thinking of this picture:

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

There are really no words to describe the wrongness and hypocrisy of the actions by the Oakland police last night, and their orders, wherever they came from. The millions of dollars spent on bringing in 16 other police departments (!), the overtime pay, the projectiles and tear gas, etc. etc. used is inexcusable. The flimsy dishonest excuse of public safety or sanitary need is insultingly flimsy. A tenth or less of the money spent on police last night could have added more porto-potties and wash stations if that was truly the issue. The priority should be on many other much more pressing and dangerous situations in our city. Militarization against peaceful voicing of just demands is part of why there is an Occupy movement. Shooting a peacefully protesting two term Iraq veteran so that he is in critical condition says it all. We are the 99%. We want real change, and we are not going away!
Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

You surely can't be so foolish as to think the 1% would hesitate for an instant to throw YOU to the wolves if it suited them. Think for one minute: Whose side are you really on?

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Rafael Postel

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Alexander

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Because we have the first amendment right to public protest. We (the middle class) are oppressed by the mega rich and the Republican party is stalling any productivity by "Our" President Obama for what ever he proposes, for their own party hopeful gain in the next Presidential election in 13 months and we are all (many) suffering and are to wait for a then Republican rescue? We do not live in a fascist state, we do not live in a police state, as a democracy the people should not fear the government, the government should fear the people. Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I am particularly appalled that this was scheduled to occur while you were out of town and that I was unable to leave a message at your office this morning. My elementary age children were so excited to see you at Sistah Steppin' In Pride. They are now quite dismayed by the use of force against peaceful protestors. What you do now is influencing multiple generations.

Please choose to support peaceful assembly and actions to change the world.

You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Subject: Oakland police action

Dear Mayor Quan.
I was very saddened to hear of the violence from police toward the Occupy Oakland group. It seems like a softer way could have been used to deal with a few folks who may have thrown some bottles than the full scale response that happened.
We are not perfect up here in Portland Oregon but we are working with our police and have found that possible. There have been very few arrests, mostly by campers who expected it because of blocking activity. Otherwise we have been able to keep communication going and negotiating. Uniformed officers without guns attend the general assemblies, so they pretty much know what to expect day by day. Neither campers nor police are perfect of course but there is a desire to make this work as easily as possible for all involved.
I myself am not a regular camper but do spend time trying to give support and take on a few tasks to help out. I am very grateful for the presence of the group and feel our society can face some important challenges we need to change how life is going for most of our citizens. I hope you can join us in this effort.
Sincerely. Ann Huntwork

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

You sponsored a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent attack on people trying to exercise their freedom of speech and right of assembly. The police injured people instead of protecting people.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the protestors. Your approach only made matters worse.

Please:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

I cannot understand how people who are advocating for the rights of everyone in the country can possibly be seen as the enemy of the police. These are the citizens whose taxes pay the police to protect, not harass, maim, or injure them. The 99% in fact represent the rights of the police to have decent salaries, pensions, and unions. The reality that you as mayor would sic them on the people as if they were dogs is incredible to me. I am shocked at this treatment, If the ex-marine who remains in a coma does not survive in good health, his death or debilitation is on your hands,

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Having recently moved to the neighborhood, I'm not very familiar with my area's councilmember - Ignacio De La Fuente. I've read some not-so-great things about him in the past.

Now he's supporting the police's way-over-the-top response to the Occupy Oakland protests. Here's what he told the Chronicle today:

"When city officials held a news conference Tuesday to talk about the police raid, Quan wasn't there. Instead, Councilman Ignacio De La Fuente defended the police action as "absolutely necessary" and added that "we have absolutely no choice."

When it came to overnight camping in the plaza, De La Fuente said, "the mayor should have put a stop from the beginning" and forced a police action that would have been less severe had it occurred earlier."

Is this how he treats the community on other issues too?

Jean Quan says she has little input on Occupy raid

(10-26) 19:45 PDT Oakland -- Oakland Mayor Jean Quan, who is being criticized from all sides for a police sweep of the Occupy Oakland encampment, said Wednesday she was not involved in the planning and did not even know when the action was going to take place.

The decision to raid the camp outside City Hall was made by City Administrator Deanna Santana on Oct. 19 with consultation from Interim Police Chief Howard Jordan after campers repeatedly blocked paramedics and police from entering the camp despite reports of violence and injuries.

Quan told a news conference at City Hall on Wednesday that her input on the raid was limited.

"I only asked the chief to do one thing: to do it when it was the safest for both the police and the demonstrators," she said.

The mayor said "I don't know everything" when asked by reporters if she was satisfied with how police conducted the sweep. She said she spent Wednesday meeting with community groups.

She also defended "99 percent" of police officers "who took a lot of abuse" and who "have really been trying to re-establish that connection with the community." But she said she asked Jordan to investigate reports of excessive force and wants a community police review board to look into the police actions.

Tuesday morning's police raid was the city's biggest law enforcement action since Quan took office this year. But Quan said she took a red-eye flight Sunday night to Washington D.C. for a scheduled meeting and returned to Oakland at 10:40 p.m. Tuesday.

Seventeen law enforcement agencies and hundreds of officers cleared out a squatter-city at City Hall's main plaza in the predawn hours. Santana said campers' unwillingness to address reports of violence, sexual assault, defecation and open flames prompted the sweep.

Even though the morning raid involved no reported injuries, the evening was different. Protesters gathered to retake the plaza but were blocked by police. Protesters hurled paint, bottles, rocks and chemicals at officers, to which police responded with tear gas.

On Tuesday, protesters showed wounds that seemed to indicate police use of nonlethal projectiles, like rubber bullets and bean bags.

Santana said she and Jordan decided on the 3 a.m. Tuesday morning time because that's when they anticipated the fewest campers.

"We wanted the minimum impact," Santana said in an interview.

Quan, however, said she did not know that Santana and Jordan had planned the raid for Tuesday morning and, in fact, "I didn't think it was going to be last night."

Quan said she kept in contact over the phone and via text messages.

Quan's statements that she played a deferential role in the sweep contrast with the fact that many view her as the main person responsible.

Critics said she had been indecisive, allowing the encampment to grow out of control. Supporters of the mayor said she betrayed them.

When city officials held a news conference Tuesday to talk about the police raid, Quan wasn't there. Instead, Councilman Ignacio De La Fuente defended the police action as "absolutely necessary" and added that "we have absolutely no choice."

When it came to overnight camping in the plaza, De La Fuente said, "the mayor should have put a stop from the beginning" and forced a police action that would have been less severe had it occurred earlier.

Among Quan's supporters, there is palpable sense of anger given her long activist history. Dan Siegel, Quan's unpaid legal adviser, became friends with her and her husband in 1969, when all three were fighting to create an ethnic studies program at UC Berkeley. Students boycotted classes for weeks.

"I oppose the takeover of the plaza" by police, said Siegel, who took part in Tuesday night's protest. He said he may resign because of the disagreement.

When Quan was running for mayor she took part in a July 2010 protest regarding the killing of an unarmed passenger by a BART officer. Quan locked arms with fellow Councilwoman Rebecca Kaplan and others near City Hall to form a barrier between police and people protesting the verdict. Whether Quan and Kaplan acted as peacemakers or obstructers of police is contested. But it's a scene Occupy Oakland supporters haven't forgotten.

At that demonstration, "she was in the front line between cops and protesters," said Emiliano Huet-Vaughn, 28, a UC Berkeley PhD candidate in economics who voted for Quan. "It makes such a difference being in the seat of power. Now she's dispatching cops to beat people up ... she's turned on the people."

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

We, as citizens need to educate ourselves on what is necessary and what isn't. As someone who is always in the area, I do believe that the protest was peaceful and functioning well or as well as the community could with the limited resources they had. I do know that when a protest is peaceful, police are ordered to use minimal force. What happened to my friends and fellow humans was not minimal. All the money that was spent on that gear, to pay those cops, and to clean everything up could have been use to help the protesters bring everything up to proper health codes which is why they supposedly were evicted anyway. The protesters are the majority and if excessive violence toward them continues I highly doubt that these people will stay peaceful.

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Thank you for your post. I agree that many of the charges of sanitation and public safety conditions were exaggerated... yes, their were problems, which is to be expected given the nature of the protest. Even if we are believe most of the charges (really? how did they know about bedbugs and lice before going in) it doesn't excuse nor rationalize the use of force on the encampment. And even if Occupy Oakland were doing everything the City claims they were doing in the morning, it ABSOLUTELY is NO excuse for the police attack on unarmed, non-violent protesters last night.

I was down at City Hall this evening and was impressed and inspired by the spirit of solidarity being expressed by those present. I took some pictures at about 5 pm that you can view by clicking HERE. As the evening went on, the crowd grew into the thousands. Here is a photo that a friend of mine just posted at about 9:00 pm on Facebook:

Estimates are that upwards of 3000 peaceful protesters are there asserting their First Amendment Rights and protesting the corrupt, unjust, and unsustainable path this country is on.

Finally, I'd like to thank Mayor Quan, City staff, and community members who met earlier today and worked out the plan for this evening's General Assembly/protest. Unlike after the initial Oscar Grant protests where, given the nature of Mr. Grants murder, the visibility of the police was in and of itself an instigation, while at Occupy Oakland I saw only one police officer on foot, and two cars patrolling the perimeter. It was a peaceful crowd and I felt completely safe to be there with my four year old.

I don't know what will happen at 10 pm. I pray for peace AND justice tonight. I left Occupy Oakland, though, inspired and empowered, hoping that the spirit continues and continues to grow.

Thanks neighbors,

-Joel on Arizona

The problem, as I see it, is that City officials are getting their information second hand. I have been to the Occupy Oakland site and it was nothing like the horrible pictures that have been painted of it. There were issues, of course, as there always will be among a group of people, but they were working on them and had made an effort to comply with all of the city directives EXCEPT to leave or to give up their right to Free Speech.

In any case, what I have seen of the police response on video and photographs, it was a complete overreaction. Not only that but it cost hundreds of thousands of dollars, cause complete disruption of the downtown area (rerouting busses, closing down businesses, keeping people from going to work), injured people (I don't consider paint on a uniform an injury although the police claim it is). One person, an ex-Marine who did 2 tours of duty, is in critical condition. The structure put up by a local synagoge was destroyed when the police went through the camp terring up signs, slitting tents and generally causing mayhem and making a mess out of what had been there. All this because the City can't be bothered to work out problems with a peaceful group?

Pleeeeaze! What a waste of our tax dollars and what stain on Oakland's reputation.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Wake up!

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

She said a bit more than that in the clip that is included here (thanks for posting the link). I hope folks will watch the entire length of the video, and not just assume that her only comments were around the plaza lawn.

The Facebook page for Occupy Oakland (https://www.facebook.com/pages/Occupy-Oakland/143158405783305) has a post that talks about the multiple issues of violence that led up to the city's decision to close the plaza between 10pm and 6am. See the comments by "Marissa Fandel" which mention a "sexual assault" that occurred on 10/17, among other events.

This link (http://www.thegatewaypundit.com/2011/10/violence-spirals-out-of-control-at-occupy-oakland-as-homeless-people-ex-convicts-at-least-one-sex-offender-students-anarchists-vie-for-power/) indicates that there was a great deal of violence in the camp that occurred just prior to the decision to close the camp at night. In addition, it appears that the citizens of the camp refused entry to the police and emergency services.

If this is true, then one way of looking at this is that Quan, and the city, are attempting to bring order to a disorderly protest, and to support the positive message of the protest rather than the violence.

I say this as a supporter of the movement, but not as a person who would have been willing to participate in civil anarchy.

Best,
Amy Nichols

Mayor Quan and members of the Oakland City Council

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary. In addition, the fact that you started your "evacuation" aka, attack at 4am greatly suggests that you knew what you were doing was wrong and unjust, yet you still proceeded.

Today, I am somewhat disappointed in my country because the very same actions that we encourage in other countries, e.g.. the right to free speech, to peacefully stand up for justice, and peaceful protest is what you sent OUR police force to fight against. We condemn other countries for doing what YOU authorized on American soil.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse and seriously injured one of OUR soldiers who selflessly fought on foreign soil to protect you. You should be absolutely ashamed of yourself, your poor decision making in this instance and lack of foresight that your team and OPD showed in handling this situation. My solidarity lies with Oakland Occupy.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Quan, do you think you are a Mayor in Syria? What is the matter with you? Treating the people of your City, in this manner. And really... you think these people will now just go home? Your behaviour is simply another example of why we occupy and that you still just don't get it. Do yourself a real favour and go buy yourself a tent and spend a night with your fellow citizens in a park.

Ths time it is peaceful the system better not push their luck because it just might not be peaceful the next time. The never seem to give the average man or woman any breaks. On paper we have these rights but once we start applying and using our rights we are treated as criminals when we haven't broken any laws. They hope a little show of force will scare the occupiers but they are wrong. People have had enough and they're nothing going take anymore of this BS.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Shame on you for directing the police to fire on protesters.
Your actions in this time will be judged by the world community-- we are watching. Make this right.

I will be taking my tourism dollars elsewhere, as well as insisting that my friends, family, and business associates that could have any possible association with Oakland do the same.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I am so ashamed of the City of Oakland and you, Jean Quan. The whole world is watching to see how our government deals with people who are exercising their constitutional rights. You have not represented us well, Ms. Quan.

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." No laws may be made means no laws have been broken. There is no excuse for what happened in your city.

There is no honor in what the Oakland Police Department did last night.

Enough!
Can the government of the City of Oakland and the police department ever make a good decision in it's relationship with the residence of this city? time and again you end up on the wrong side of the argument. Now you have rushed in to break up a peaceful assembly.
A better response would have been to bring in portable toilets and trash containers to encourage the people to act appropriately. Instead you exploit their weaknesses and move in on them while they slept.
Shame.
You incite riots with your violent reactionary behavior. How to avoid bottles being thrown at you? Don't encourage bad behavior and push people to their limits. they are protesting the increasing injustice that the corporate powers that be, and ever increasingly, this is represented by you and your police.
We are the 99%. Including the police. Work on the right side of this protest and make a stand. No more squashing the right to readdress grievances.

You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I am writing to urge you to permit the lawful assembly of Oakland citizens in support of the Occupy Wall Street movement or any other cause which brings them together. This is a founding right which was dear to the hearts of our original patriots.

Full restitution should be made to those injured in police attacks.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Why is it that whenever the police use violence first it is never considered a violation of the constitution? The wording is clear; the people have the right to peacefully assemble in demonstration against the government. The government has no right to use violence against demonstrators PERIOD. Especially the notorious, trigger happy & murderous Oakland police.

My friends helped you lift the mortgage on your house in celebrating your election. I cant believe this is your police and action responsible for this!

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that your city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Subject: Stop the repression of Occupy Oakland

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

You really messed up this time with your attempt to disappear the Occupy protesters in the night. Americans don't like to be shot in the face, you know. I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Police brutality cannot and will not be tolerated in a free society.

Mayor Quan,

I'd like to express my strong and heartfelt dissatisfaction that the police in your city would use rubber bullets, etc., to attack American citizens--your own constituents--to put down an "Occupy" protest.

The wounding of American soldier Scott Olsen is especially egregious. Across the nation, there is strong feeling that what you and the police force have done is not only wrong but unconstitutional. We have and want to keep our rights as Americans, not the least of which are of free speech and the right to protest.

We hope you'll agree with us and very shortly so that the protests are not ordered to stand down.

OAKLAND, CA - 26OCTOBER11 - Three thousand grassroots people and political activists resume the rally and occupation in Frank Ogawa Plaza in front of City Hall, the evening after police tore down the tents of occupiers and fired tear gas and rubber bullets to try to disperse the demonstrators. Occupiers discussed in small groups the actions they intend to take to keep their movement growing.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park.

That evening, as citizen journalists reporting via social media clearly showed, police used tear gas, flash grenades, and rubber bullets on people exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly.

That same evening, the Oakland Police Department issued a press release (http://www2.oaklandnet.com/oakca/groups/police/documents/pressrelease/oak031916.pdf)

that claimed, in part, the following:

"Q. Did the Police deploy rubber bullets, flash-bag grenades?
A. No, the loud noises that were heard originated from M-80 explosives thrown at Police by protesters. In addition, Police fired approximately four bean bag rounds at protesters to stop them from throwing dangerous objects at the officers.
Q. Did the Police use tear gas?
A. Yes, the Police used a limited amount of tear gas for a small area as a defense against protesters who were throwing various objects at Police Officers as they approached the area. The objects included glass bottles, rocks, pots, pans, kitchen utensils and plates at Police Officers."

It is unacceptable that the Oakland Police Department be allowed to issue disingenuous press releases with information that is untrue and seriously misleading. Tweets from such citizen journalists as @susie_c and video and photographs that later appeared on such news sites as the Guardian UK http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/2011/oct/26/scott-olsen-occupy-oakland-review?newsfeed=true

http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/blog/2011/oct/25/occupy-wall-street-protests-live?INTCMP=ILCNETTXT3487 showed that Oakland Police used unreasonable and unacceptable force on the assembly, including what seem to be flash-bag grenades.

As an elected official, your 1) decision to allow a police raid (as opposed to other, less confrontational measures that could have been taken to help keep the plaza a safe and sanitary place for peaceful assembly) and 2) your extremely limited attempts to communicate with the public in the 24 hours following the events of the 25th, are disappointing and call into serious question your ability to effectively lead a community in a time of crisis.

I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.
- Direct Oakland Police to issue a separate press release to the public that accurately reflects the events of the 25th of October, including the types of non-lethal weapons that Oakland Police Officers used against the protesters, and an accurate assessment of the amount of tear gas that was deployed.

I urge you to find a way to leverage the national and global media attention that Oakland is now getting as a result of the Occupy movement to effect positive change in our community.

Sincerely,

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

The Boston Massacre, called the Boston Riot by the English, was an incident on March 5, 1770, in which British redcoats killed five civilian men. British troops had been stationed in Boston since 1768 in order to protect and support crown-appointed colonial officials attempting to enforce unpopular Parliamentary legislation. Amid ongoing tense relations between the population and the soldiers, a mob formed around a British sentry, who was subjected to verbal abuse and harassment. He was eventually supported by a small company of troops, who were assaulted by verbal threats and thrown objects. They fired into the crowd, apparently without orders, instantly killing three people and wounding others. Two more people died later of wounds sustained in the incident.

The crowd eventually dispersed after Acting Governor Thomas Hutchinson promised an inquiry, but reformed the next day, prompting the withdrawal of the troops to Castle Island. Eight soldiers were arrested and charged with murder. Defended by Patriot lawyer John Adams, six of the soldiers were acquitted, while the other two were convicted of manslaughter and given reduced sentences.

The more OWS protesters die the more entrenched the movement will become.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Violence against citizens is wrong. Moreover, it violates the 1st Amendment.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

BREAK-IN AND ROBBERY ALERT!!!!! My neighbor at 4618 El Centro Avenue (back apartment) just arrived home a short time ago to find that someone had entered his apartment through a window. They went through all of the drawers, closets, file cabinets and took his computer monitor, cameras and other electronic items.They had entered through a bathroom window which is really quite high off the ground level. Had to be a two-person job. Must have climbed over the back fence into the back yard two doors up from 1050 El Centro because the compost container top was crushed in. It was sitting right next to the fence between the apartment building and the back yard on El Centro. Didn't go up the front stairs or my dog would have gone berserk. He goes crazy when strangers go up the stairs. The police would not take a report because they are too busy down at City Hall Plaza with the Occupy Oakland gang. Did anyone see anything suspicious going on either on El Centro Avenue going up the hill from Glendora, or around on Elsinore near that big apartment building? They had to carry the stuff out to a vehicle somewhere and it was a very large monitor. MK on El Centro.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

OAKLAND, CA - 26OCTOBER11 - Three thousand grassroots people and political activists resume the rally and occupation in Frank Ogawa Plaza in front of City Hall, the evening after police tore down the tents of occupiers and fired tear gas and rubber bullets to try to disperse the demonstrators. Occupiers discussed in small groups the actions they intend to take to keep their movement growing.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

On the first day of LA's protest I had the chance to go around praying for the peace of our and other protests around the world connected with Occupy Wall Street. I was able to pray for the leaders, some of the protesters, and even police. Our prayer is that this would be a peaceful and non-violent opportunity to stand against some major injustices our country has allowed in our own country and to countries around the world. By violently responding, as the police did in Oakland, the movement will only grow bigger (and potentially more violent - there are people on both sides who don't always understand this nonviolent way of negotiating). Really praying we don't see more videos like the ones going around right now. Doesn't make Oakland seem like a city anyone would want to live in. Please stand for Peace! We should all, 99% and the 1% be in this together!

These people are protesting their rights, and of all places to take such action is unnecessary. This is a worldwide protest, and YOU should support what the

that are more important!!!! I am coming from a small town country life

I am a single mother who has seen struggle through what our government IS doing of protesting become a voice of the future..... WE NEED A GRATER FUTURE!!!

I am speaking for the youth, and their future, what THEY need, and THEY, the youth deserve MORE

I can't go out and protest, it is unsafe for my child and I join such a walk. Although we do

An open letter to Mayor Jean Quan:

"I am outraged by the excessive use of force by the police, the senseless injury to Marine veteran Scott Olsen, and to see that when others came to his aid, a policeman threw a stun grenade directly at them. See video: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QqNOPZLw03Q. How many millions of dollars did your decision for the police action cost the citizens of Oakland? You chose tear gas instead of schools, armed general assistance instead of mentoring & negotiation. You have lost all credibility. No way can you say "this was done for health and "public safety." You are responsible for making Oakland look like a police state. I voted for you. Now I'm supporting your Recall.

Video footage of Olsen lying on the ground after having been hit by a tear gas canister. Notice that when people ran to his aid, a policeman nearby tossed a stun grenade directly at him and those who were trying to help him.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

SHE WAS NOT RESISTING OR FIGHTING HIM- I AM OUTRAGED! I COULD NOT SEE THIS OFFICERS BADGE. NUMBER. HE NEEDS TO BE INVESTIGATED AND DISCIPLINED.

I AM VERY CONCERNED ABOUT OUTSIDE AGITATORS INFILTRATING, ONE AGAIN, A PEACEFUL RIGHTFUL PROTEST!! ALLOWING THE HOMELESS AND OTHERS TO CAMP OUT NEVER SHOULD HAVE BEEN ALLOWED. I LIKE THE IDEA OF HAVING ACTIVE DEMOCRATIC PROTESTS EACH DAY- THERE NEEDS TO BE DAILY COMMUNITY PLANNING AND MEETINGS WITH COMMUNITY LEADERS, GOVERNMENTAL, CLERGY, ETC ETC ETC UNTIL SOME FORM OF MORE WISE GROUP ORGANIZATION AND LEADERSHIP EMERGES TO ADDRESS MANY ISSUES OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO INDIVIDUALS, FAMILIES, IN OUR COMMUNITY AND STATE AND COUNTRY.

PEOPLE ARE IN THIS FOR THE LONG HAUL!! LET IS ALL BE PROACTIVE
SEE THOSE VIDEOS !!!! I HOPE YOU ARE AS SHOCKED AS I AM!!!
WE NEED STRONG WISE LEADERSHIP AT THIS MORE DIFFICULT TURNING POINT TIME IN OAKLAND! THAT IS YOU! .. . I HOPE AND PRAY THERE WILL BE NO MORE OF THESE UNUSUAL INCIDENTS.

Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Sincerely,

Dear Mayor Quan.

You should be beyond ashamed for the violence you helped to unleash against your own civilians exercising their rights to free speech. Watching videos of the absurd police reaction to the protests reminded me more of an Arab country then America. And in the process you critically injured one of our own troops who bravely fought 2x in Iraq. Would you want the police acting this way against your own children? You are a part of a disgusting group of sick people who are selling off our country to the highest bidder. May the injuries you have caused leave deep marks in whatever is left of your soul.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

Oakland police and mayor, It is STILL a Constitutional right to peacefully protest against laws and elected officials who no longer serve the people who elected them. In addition, how do you think your actions look to the protesters in Libya, Egypt, Syria and Yemen? All the violence is started by the police and all the weapons are held by the police. The more violence against the protesters, the worse the police and city officials look to the world and the more protesters will show up.

Mayor Jean Quan

Dear Mayor Quan,

I stand in solidarity with the thousands of Occupy protestors world wide, and especially with the local activists who have a right to peacefully protest. I am outraged and saddened by the City of Oakland's tactics in addressing Occupy Oakland.

On Tuesday, October 25th you allowed a pre-dawn raid of the Occupy Oakland camps at Oscar Grant Plaza and Snow Park. That evening, you allowed police to wage a violent and unwarranted attack on people simply exercising their freedom of speech and right to assembly. The use of tear gas, rubber bullets, and flash grenades were completely unnecessary.

Oakland has a long history of protest. That makes it even more shocking that our city so completely mishandled the Occupy Oakland protestors.
Your approach only made matters worse.

Therefore I demand that you:
- Direct Oakland Police to cease the use of force against peaceful protestors.
- Tell the Alameda D.A. to drop all charges against those arrested for peaceful protest and release them immediately.
- Allow for the return of peaceful Occupy activists to City Hall Plaza and attend other public rallies, marches and gatherings without threat of excessive force.

Dear Mayor Quan,

I'm writing in regards to the shocking and appalling reports and videos of brutal police violence on peaceful protesters in your city. That you would condone such actions is absolutely mortifying and I sincerely hope the recall campaign that has been initiated against you is successful.

You and your office have betrayed the public you serve. This absurd level of violence to simply disperse what you may consider a "public nuisance" is absolutely horrifying.

I'm not even from Oakland, but I will donate to your next opponent's campaign.

Sincerely,

ever heard of the first amendment, jackass? hope you're happy that your police force made a martyr out of an iraq vet. shooting people in the face with rubber bullets is what tyrants do... and you're just a second rate mayor. not only did your police force shoot him in the face, they also shot tear gas at the people trying to help him. i pity you and the cowardice that you exhibit. may you find some morals in your wayward path across this earth, and may you learn to respect the god given rights that we sovereign human beings were endowed with. what side of history are you going to be on?

I strongly condemn the brutal crackdown on Occupy Oakland protestors, authorized by your office, which turned a peaceful protest into a war zone. You must immediately cite and release the arrested protesters, fire the decision-makers who authorized the use of authoritarian police tactics, allow the occupiers to immediately resume their around-the-clock protest at Oscar Grant Plaza, and remunerate protestors for the destruction of property at the hands of Oakland-area police officers.

In the early hours of October 25, hundreds of baton-wielding officers assaulted protesters and members of the media with tear gas before arresting dozens of protestors and destroying the encampment at Oscar Grant Plaza. Some protestors report the use of flash grenades and rubber bullets during the early morning raid on the plaza. To add insult to injury, instead of citing the arrested protestors and releasing them on their own recognizance, police are holding them in jail until an October 27th arraignment, where they will have to pay a $10,000 bond to be released.

These harsh measures are completely out of proportion to the peaceful assembly at Oscar Grant Plaza. Ultimate responsibility for the heavy-handed police response lies in your hands. I urge you to do the right thing and allow Occupy Oakland to keep Oscar Grant Plaza.

I am serious in my demand that the officer who threw the grenade at good samaritans be held accountable. Very, very serious. Oakland has a lot of answering to do the public.

The City of Oakland attacked a War Vet, then attacked the people who tried to help him. The police did it from a distance, and from behind a barricade - and with no threat to themselves.

It literally looks like the cop did it for "shits and giggles". That is a reflection on the City of Oakland.

What I am saying here is that The City of Oakland attacked a war vet and good samaritans for shits and giggles. You said it, too, Mr. Mayor.
